RFA Judges Regional Sculpture Exhibition

St. Petersburg, Florida – September 15, 2011 – Ken Rollins, President of Rollins Fine Art, recently judged the 26th annual Caldwell Arts Council's Regional Sculpture Exhibition. Held in the beautiful T. H. Broyhill Walking Park in Lenoir, N.C., the competition drew 76 sculptors primarily from the Southeastern United States. One hundred seventy-eight sculptures were entered, with artists working in all media and styles. Rollins presented $10,500 in awards. First place went to Wayne Trapp of North Carolina.
