

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Rollins Fine Art Curates Exhibition

Tarpon Springs, Florida – October 9, 2013 – Ken Rollins, President of Rollins Fine Art, has curated an exhibition for the Leepa-Rattner Museum of Art in Tarpon Springs, FL. The exhibition, "Tomas Marais: Artist in Exile" features the work of Cuban artist Tomas Marais (1931-2004) and includes paintings, woodcuts, lithographs and collage pieces. Marais left Havana in 1964 and moved to Paris, France where he lived and worked until 1989, when he moved to Tampa, Florida to be near his sister, Nancy Brito. While in Paris, he showed with some of the most important artists of the 20th century: Pablo Picasso, Salvador Dali, Max Ernst, Rene Magritte, Roberto Matta and Wilfredo Lam, among others.

###

Ken Rollins speaks to museum members concerning the exhibition and interviews Nancy Muniz Brito, the sister of Tomas Marais, concerning the artist's life and work.

Ken Rollins speaks to museum members concerning the exhibition and interviews Nancy Muniz Brito, the sister of Tomas Marais, concerning the artist's life and work.